

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH WALES
PRIFYSGOL DE CYMRU

GOVERNORS

The University of South Wales is seeking motivated individuals with strategic level experience in their fields to join its Board of Governors in 2020, to help shape its educational character and strategic direction; challenge where necessary; and help to provide effective and constructive governance. Governors are appointed for an initial period of three years and drawn from a range of backgrounds reflecting the community that the University serves.

We would particularly welcome candidates who offer expertise in one or more of the following areas: accounting, marketing and law.

The University is a registered charity (1140312) and governors of the University are automatically trustees.

How to apply

To express an interest or receive further information, please contact William Callaway, University Secretary & Clerk to the Governors. Intending applicants should submit a CV and covering letter.

William Callaway
University Secretary & Clerk to the Governors
University of South Wales
Email: william.callaway@southwales.ac.uk

We welcome expressions of interest from diverse backgrounds and communities, especially with regards to age, disability, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, race and religion or belief, and Welsh speakers.

Remuneration: unpaid (reasonable expenses will be reimbursed)

The University of South Wales was formed in 2013 by the merger of the University of Glamorgan and the University of Wales, Newport. It has two wholly-owned college subsidiaries, the Royal Welsh College of Music & Drama and The College Merthyr Tydfil.